

THE WORD IS OUT ON NATION RADIO

MARCH 2017

RULES

The following rules (“Rules”) together with Nation Broadcasting’s general and competition terms and conditions (the “Terms and Conditions”) (which can be found at www.nationradio.wales) apply to ‘THE WORD IS OUT’ radio competition (“the Competition”) which will run from Monday 13th March to Friday 31st March (“the Duration”). The “Radio Station” is Nation Radio.

Anyone who enters the Competition (an “Entrant”) will be deemed to have understood these Rules along with the Terms and Conditions and will be bound by them. The Terms and Conditions are available on request from the Radio Station.

1. Details of the Competition

- . 1.1 To enter the Competition an Entrant must text the word NATION to 66 777 (the text line) during the opening times. Texts will be charged at the standard network rate. The registration periods for the competition will be given out on air.
- . 1.2 One text entrant from all entries received will be randomly selected to play.
- . 1.3 All entrants selected to play will be required to talk with the presenter/s. If the entrant cannot continue the call for any reason, the call may be terminated and another entrant selected at random.
- . 1.4. The first randomly selected text entrant will be played a celebrity audio clip with one word obscured. The entrant must correctly identify the obscured word to win that hours prize jackpot. There will be 3 separate rounds on air each weekday at 8:15, 11:15, 4:15, from the Monday 13th March to Friday 31st March (Nation reserves the right to take the game off air when programming output requires it). Entrants wishing to be included in each round will need to enter every hour the competition is played.

- . 1.5. If the caller is able to identify that hours obscured word they will win a prize jackpot. Only the correct answer will be accepted and the Programme Directors decision is final.
